

REPORT FOR THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

UNITED STATES SENATE

RELEASED IN FULL

SUBJECT: Ambassadorial Nomination: Certificate of Demonstrated Competence -- Foreign Service
Act, Section 304(a)(4)

POST: Canada

CANDIDATE: Bruce Alan Heyman

Bruce Heyman, Managing Director, Private Wealth Management, Goldman Sachs & Co., has served with distinction for more than three decades in the financial services industry and in the non-profit sector. He has broad management and organizational skills in addition to a deep knowledge of international economics and business. Together with his finely honed skills in leadership and interpersonal communication, Mr. Heyman's abilities will serve him well in advancing the U.S. relationship with Canada, perhaps the most important U.S. strategic, security and economic partner globally.

While pursuing his private sector career, Mr. Heyman also dedicated himself to community service. He served as Director, Northwestern Memorial Foundation (01/2000 - Present); Member, Northwestern Memorial Hospital's Bluhm Cardiovascular Institute Advisory Council (10/2004 - Present); Member, Board of Managers, Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) (09/2001 - 10/2012); Board Member, Executive Committee, Presidential Search Committee, The Chicago Council on Global Affairs (6/2010 - Present); Chicago Advisory Board Member, Facing History and Ourselves (7/2011 - Present); and Fix The Debt CEO Council Advisor, Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget (2012 - Present). In addition to serving in various capacities for Vanderbilt University, he served on the Board of Visitors, Owen Graduate School of Management, Vanderbilt University (2005 - 2011). He is a Member of the FBI Chicago Citizen's Academy Alumni Association (5/2011 - Present). He has been an active advocate for the City of Chicago.

Mr. Heyman earned a B.A. in 1979 and an M.B.A. in 1980 from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee. While a student at Vanderbilt, he worked summers in the U.S. House of Representatives.
