Everyone in receipt of this message on the on-line community ought to be aware of the recent cyber -attack on OPM's personnel database. The situation is evolving. It appears the principal target of the cyber-attack was the E-Quip, on-line application system used for security clearances. Recently submitted SF-86s would have been compromised. How far back this goes, AFSA does not yet know. We believe it is less likely older, pre-digitalized documentation was accessed, however, AFSA cannot determine from information available whether this is certain.

AFSA suggests Foreign Service retirees take precautions as prescribed by the recent message from DoS Undersecretary Pat Kennedy, for example, checking in with the credit agencies and financial institutions.
