Delegate Paul E. Krizek

2025 Recipient of AFSA's Foreign Service Champions Award

Serving as Delegate in the Virginia General Assembly since 2016, Paul is a proud Mount Vernon native and son of a Foreign Service Officer. A graduate of Groveton High School (now West Potomac), the University of Virginia, and Catholic University Law School, he now lives with his wife and daughter in his childhood home in the Hollin Hills neighborhood of Mount Vernon. He has dedicated his life and career to community service and progressive values.

Paul began his public service career with Congressman Jim Moran as his immigration constituent service staffer and later become his legislative aide on the House International Relations Committee (HERC). Since 1999, Paul has served as Chief Counsel and Vice President at Christian Relief Services Charities, an international humanitarian organization that locally provides homes for abused women, children, people with disabilities, and the homeless.

In the General Assembly, Paul has been a vocal advocate and vital resource for his constituents. He chairs key subcommittees on Appropriations, General Laws, and Privileges & Elections.
