

Leah Pease

State Department Representative

Leah Pease is a Public Diplomacy coned Foreign Service Officer having joined the Foreign Service in 2001. She most recently served as the 2014 Lawrence S. Eagleburger Fellow where she spent a year working in the D.C. office of ExxonMobil's Public and Global Affairs division. Prior to that, she served for three years in the Public Diplomacy Training Office at the Foreign Service Institute training new Public Diplomacy Officers and LE Staff. Previously she was the Deputy Public Affairs Advisor at the U.S. Mission to the North Atlantic Treaty Association (USNATO) in Brussels, Belgium; Desk Officer for the United Kingdom and Ireland in the Bureau of European and Eurasian Affairs; Management Officer at the U.S. Consulate General in Belfast, Northern Ireland; and as a Consular Officer in Caracas, Venezuela.

Leah's next assignment will be as the Public Affairs Officer at U.S. embassy Sarajevo. Before entering the Foreign Service, Leah was a high school Spanish teacher in Houston, Texas. Originally from Yreka, California she has a B.A. in Spanish and a Masters Degree in Public Policy.