

Peter Neisuler

State Department Representative

Peter Neisuler recently concluded a tour as the Human Resources Advisor for the Secretary's Quadrennial Diplomacy and Development Review (QDDR), a blueprint for the State Department and USAID's next four years.

A political-coned Foreign Service officer, Peter has served as senior desk officer for the Benelux countries in EUR; as human rights and frozen conflicts officer in Moscow; as Vice Consul in Skopje; and as Branch Public Affairs Officer in Dubai.

Prior to joining the Foreign Service, Peter served briefly as a PMI (PMF) in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor. Before that, he taught high school English at a public high school in New York City. Peter speaks Russian, Bulgarian, Arabic, and French, and has traveled to approximately 50 countries. He lives in Arlington with his wife, fellow FSO Mariana Neisuler, and their two boys, 9 and 10. In 2016, after Arabic training, they will depart for Jordan where Peter will be Cultural Affairs Officer.
