ARTICLE I

PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

This agreement is entered into by the United States Agency for International Development, hereinafter referred to as the "Agency" or "Employer," and the American Foreign Service Association, hereinafter referred to as the "Union" or "AFSA," and collectively referred to as the "Parties," under authority of the Foreign Service Act of 1980, hereinafter referred to as the "Act."

ARTICLE II

RECOGNITION AND UNIT DESIGNATION

SECTION 1

The Agency for International Development recognizes the American Foreign Service Association as the exclusive representative of bargaining unit employees in Section 2 below.

SECTION 2

On January 22, 1973, AFSA was certified as the exclusive representative of Foreign Service employees in the Foreign Service bargaining unit of the Agency for International Development. The unit constitutes a single and separate worldwide bargaining unit, excluding management officials, confidential employees, employees engaged in personnel work in other than a purely clerical capacity, employees engaged in criminal or national security investigation, and employees who audit the work of individuals to insure that their functions are discharged honestly and with integrity.

ARTICLE III

DURATION AND RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT

SECTION 1 – GENERAL

This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect for three years from the date of signature. Thereafter, the Agreement shall be automatically renewed for additional one-year periods, unless, between no more than one hundred five (105) nor less than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the Agreement's expiration date, either party gives written notice to the other of its desire to amend, supplement or renegotiate the Agreement. The Agreement shall remain in effect until such changes have been negotiated.

SECTION 2

The parties may amend and supplement this Agreement to reflect changes mandated by law, executive order and government-wide rules or regulations not in effect when this Agreement is executed.

ARTICLE IV

NEGOTIATIONS

Parties to the Agreement have the responsibility to conduct negotiations and other dealings in good faith and in such manner as will further the public interest.

SECTION 2 – NOTICE TO THE UNION

- A. During the life of this Agreement the Agency shall provide the Union advance written notice with respect to changes in conditions of employment. If the Union desires to negotiate on such changes or to meet and consult for the purpose of clarifying any change, it must so respond in writing to the Agency's labor relations office within seven (7) calendar days; except, if the Union during such period advises the Agency in writing, that it requires additional time, then the time for the Union's response will be expedited by five (5) days. After providing any such response the Union shall submit written counterproposals, as follows:
- (1) If AFSA in its response has requested negotiations, it shall present its written counterproposals to the Agency within 10 days of the Agency's receipt of AFSA's request to negotiate; or
 - (2) If AFSA in its response has requested clarification, it shall submit any counterproposals to the Agency in writing within ten (10) days after the Agency has provided clarification, as well as data in accordance with 1013(e)(4) of the Foreign Service Act; provided, however, if AFSA advises the Agency in writing prior to the end of such 10 days that it has sought information or comments from bargaining unit members posted overseas, then the required date for the submission of AFSA counterproposals as specified in (2) shall be extended by an additional ten (10) days. Further extensions shall be only by mutual consent.
- B. Each party, at the request of the other party, shall be required to meet for good faith negotiations no sooner than one week after the Agency has received AFSA's written counterproposals.

SECTION 3 – MID-TERM BARGAINING

Mid-term bargaining is negotiation during the term of a basic Agreement over Union-proposed or Agency-proposed changes in conditions of employment not covered by the basic Agreement or not clearly and unmistakably waived during negotiations. The parties recognize the right of either party to initiate and the obligation of each party to engage in mid-term bargaining.

SECTION 4 – RESOLUTION OF IMPLEMENTATION DISPUTE

Any dispute between the Agency and the Union concerning the effect, interpretation, or a claim of breach of a collective bargaining agreement shall be resolved pursuant to Section 1014 of the Act.

Official time is not authorized for the conduct of internal union business or activities. The Agency further agrees to provide one staff-year for the AFSA Vice President for USAID to fulfill AFSA's representational obligations. The parties agree that this one-year period began on October 8, 1992. Following the expiration of this period, there will be a six-month term within which both parties will evaluate implementation of a permanent full official time position and commence negotiations concerning this issue. The Union Vice President will continue on 100% official time during this period.
- (C) The Agency agrees to allow the AFSA Vice President for USAID, who is on 100% official time, the election of either a time-in-class waiver, hereinafter referred to as "TIC waiver," or review by a Performance Board (formerly "selection board").
